

PSHE and SEMH Resources for Teachers

In light of school closures, please find below a range of advice and resources for schools, as well as a resource to pass on to parents/carers in your school. We are keen to share tools and resources as best we can, to support children's wellbeing and education over this period of uncertainty.

We will be updating this resource weekly.

We are keen to signpost schools and settings to resources that start valuable conversations with pupils and students. These resources also provide tested tools to maintain wellbeing at what can be an anxious time for children and young people.

At the end of the document, we have included some resources which support pupils and students to continue learning at home.

General Updates

Social distancing at lunchtimes

With the anticipated re-opening of schools for some year groups, the DfE has published guidance on how to implement social distancing and take measures to reduce risks to pupils and staff. This guidance includes advice for lunchtimes and eating arrangements. We encourage you to work with your Catering team or providers to explore suitable options for ensuring safety at lunchtimes. This may include staggering lunchtimes or serving meals in classrooms. Please click here to read the full guidance to get in touch for advice.

Free School Meals during the half term

For schools who are currently supporting families entitled to free school meals through the National Voucher scheme, there are no current plans to continue this offer during the half term break. We are however, due an update from the DfE this Thursday 21st May so will ensure we communicate any updates with schools. The full DfE guidance for free school meals is available here.

There is a live petition to continue to provide the free school meal vouchers which can be accessed and signed here .

Mental Health

Safe Zone

Crisis support for 11-17 year olds in Leeds. Initially it was drop-in support in three areas of the City of Leeds; Halton, Beeston and the City Centre. Due to COVID-19, support is currently offered remotely, in the form of 30 minute one-to-one telephone support session with an experienced crisis support worker. To make a referral call 0113 819 8189, the phone line will be open 17:00-20:30pm and referrals run on a first come, first served basis.

They can help if:

- You're in Crisis
- You're finding it hard to cope with life
- You're feeling desperate, angry, lonely, anxious or depressed.
- You feel there is nowhere to turn
- You feel like you can't go on living
- You're feeling confused or finding it hard to think straight
- You're feeling unsafe
- You just want to talk

They can offer:

- Someone who will listen with warmth, acceptance, and understanding
- A chance to look at ways of keeping yourself safe.
- Information about other support services and longer term other services.
- Support with looking at your opinions and finding your own solutions to your problems.
- A safe space where you can have feel you are free.
- Emotional and practical support that is non-judgmental and confidential on any issue young people wish to bring.
- Support to parents and carers if the young person is being supported there.

This resource includes an extensive policy section, guidance on creating an LGBT inclusive curriculum, support on working with parents and carers, as well as highlighting the importance of ensuring that a wide range of LGBT people are represented and celebrated in the school, college or setting.
- For SEND students: ‘It’s OK’ symbol supported posters and easy read information sheets.
- They also encourage getting in touch if you are developing or updating policies, resources or training, or just have a question about LGBT-inclusion in any area of your work.
- They also have cross-curricular resources on our home learning hub – we will be adding new packs to the hub regularly over the weeks ahead.

Online Safety Advice

As with all live-streaming platforms such as Houseparty and Zoom, screenshots, unsolicited messages and self-generated inappropriate imagery can put young people at risk. As such you and your child/children should be aware of the following.

- Links to 'rooms' can be shared publicly to other platforms which could lead to uninvited users joining.
- 'Rooms' should be locked to prevent uninvited guests from joining. All rooms will lock by default if a user enables 'private mode'.
- If an uninvited guest joins a 'room' they can easily 'friend' others taking part in the live stream.
- It appears that when a friend is invited, their friends can also join a 'room' without the invitation. Therefore, potentially increase the opportunity to cyber-bully and troll others.

For those with access to the Safer Schools App, Ineqe have posted a blog and sent a push notification about it in the app. You can find this in under the News Hub menu in the app then select Safety Hub.

As always, the advice is for parents/carers to talk to their child about staying safe online and discussing any new online features they use so they can enjoy them safely.
