

Practical Use of the Derbyshire Language Scheme

PLACES STILL AVAILABLE

Aims:

- To give a basic understanding of DLS principles and how they can be used practically in early years settings to support the development of language and communication skills

Ideal for: Teachers and childcare/education support staff in all early years/foundation stage settings who support children with communication difficulties.

Overview: The course includes an overview of the Derbyshire Language Scheme (DLS) focusing on how it can develop early understanding/use of language for children with recognised communication difficulties.

Course Dates:

Thursday 12th October 2017 09:30 - 12:00
Wednesday 24th January 2018 09:30 - 12:00
Wednesday 16th May 2018 09:30 - 12:00

Duration: 2½ hours

Venue: HEART, Headingley Enterprise & Arts Centre,
Bennett Road, Headingley, Leeds LS6 3HN

Cost: £46

Recommendations: Previous attendance at the 'Communication Workshop: Supporting Practitioners in the Early Years' would be an advantage for this course.
